

ORDINANCE NO

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING THE AUSTIN TOMORROW COMPREHENSIVE PLAN BY ADOPTING THE UNIVERSITY HILLS/WINDSOR PARK NEIGHBORHOOD PLAN

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF AUSTIN

PART 1 FINDINGS

- (A) In 1979, the City Council adopted the "Austin Tomorrow Comprehensive Plan "
- (B) Article X, Section 5 of the City Charter authorizes the City Council to adopt by ordinance additional elements of a comprehensive plan that are necessary or desirable to establish and implement policies for growth, development, and beautification, including neighborhood, community, or area-wide plans
- (C) In October, 2005, an initial survey was distributed to residents in the neighborhood planning area, and subsequent meetings were held with the City of Austin Neighborhood planning staff and homeowners, renters, business owners, non-profit organizations and non-resident property owners to prepare a neighborhood plan. The University Hills/Windsor Park Neighborhood Plan followed a process first outlined by the Citizens' Planning Committee in 1995, and refined by the Ad Hoc Neighborhood Planning Committee in 1996. The City Council endorsed this approach for neighborhood planning in a 1997 resolution. This process mandated representation of all of the stakeholders in the neighborhood and required active public outreach. The City Council directed the Planning Commission to consider the plan in a 2005 resolution. During the planning process, the University Hills/Windsor Park Neighborhood Plan planning team gathered information and solicited public input through the following means
- (1) neighborhood planning team meetings,
 - (2) collection of existing data,
 - (3) neighborhood inventory,
 - (4) neighborhood survey,
 - (5) neighborhood workshops, and

1 (6) community-wide meetings

2 (D) The University Hills/Windsor Park Neighborhood Plan recommends action
3 by the neighborhood planning team, the City, and by other agencies to 4 preserve and improve the neighborhood The University Hills/Windsor Park
5 Neighborhood Plan has eight major goals

6 (1) Promote and maintain the single-family residential character of the 7 neighborhood

8
9 (2) Attract needed vendors and service providers into the planning area
10 through support for local businesses and revitalization/redevelopment 11 of neighborhood shopping areas

12
13 (3) Improve the aesthetic look of the planning area with the use of 14 landscaping, reduction of billboards, and quality design of business
15 structures and surroundings

16
17 (4) Encourage a diversity of housing options at various levels of 18 affordability dispersed throughout the neighborhood

19
20 (5) Improve the existing transportation system and support expanded
21 public transportation services

22
23 (6) Protect and enhance all natural and environmentally-sensitive features 24 of the area, especially Little Walnut Creek, Tannehill Creek, and 25 Fort Branch Creek, and tributaries and springs of these three creeks

26
27 (7) Increase opportunities for physical recreation through parkland, an 28 improved pedestrian and bicycle environment, and built environment
29 planning

30
31 (8) Acknowledge the ethnic diversity and language differences of area
32 residents and foster greater communication among area residents
33

34 (E) The University Hills/Windsor Park Neighborhood Plan goals are further 35 described in the Plan Summary section of the Plan

36 (F) On June 26, 2007, the Planning Commission held a public hearing on the 37 University Hills/Windsor Park Neighborhood Plan, and recommended
38 adoption of the plan by the City Council

- 7
- 1 (G) The University Hills/Windsor Park Neighborhood Plan is appropriate for 2 adoption as an element of the Austin Tomorrow Comprehensive Plan. The 3 University Hills/Windsor Park Neighborhood Plan furthers the City
4 Council's goal of achieving appropriate, compatible development within the 5 area. The University Hills/Windsor Park Neighborhood Plan is necessary
6 and desirable to establish and implement policies for growth, development, 7 and beautification in the area.

8 PART 2 ADOPTION AND DIRECTION

- 9 (A) Chapter 5 of the Austin Tomorrow Comprehensive Plan is amended to add 10 the University Hills/Windsor Park Neighborhood Plan as Section 5-22 of the
